YOUR MOVE
WITH ANDY STANLEY

LEADING YOURSELF WELL

Leaders are everywhere—in the community, at the office, and in our homes. But the ones worth following are those who first learn to lead themselves well.

QUESTIONS

01 Think about a leader you admire. How have they led themselves well in order to lead others well?

02 Is there a situation in your life in which you need to tell yourself the unfiltered truth? Explain.

03 How are you tempted to choose what you want now over what you value most?

04 Do your friends make you a better person? Why or why not?

05 Andy mentioned that Jesus followers are characterized by their confidence in God (i.e., "faith") and their love for others. Could embracing these two priorities help you lead yourself better? Why or why not?

06 How might our country be different if we prioritized people like Jesus did?

NOTES

BOTTOM LINE

Great leaders last because they lead themselves first.

Learn something new? Have any epiphanies? Tweet your story and tag us @YourMove.

© 2020 Your Move with Andy Stanley. All rights reserved. 501(c)(3)